

PhD Publication Requirement Form

Student's Name

Date

Students receiving the PhD degree are required to have the results of their research accepted for publication prior to awarding of the degree. This manuscript must meet the publication requirement, i.e., the student must be listed as the sole first author on at least one original research and/or scholarship publication in a national or international peer-reviewed journal. In rare cases, exceptions may be allowed. Any requested exception must be approved by the advisory committee, program director, and the SGSHS Dean.
