Location: BigBlueButton or dial in 1-863-208-0022 (pin: 337 216 271)

Mitchell Adcock

Executive Director,
Center for Mississippi Health Policy
Jackson, Ms.

Objectives:

1. Cite what is healthy policy
2. Measure the impact health policy has on the health of Mississippians
3. Analyze your role in monitoring, developing and implementing health policy for all individuals involved in providing health care to Mississippians

Mitchell Adcock's professional background includes multiple years of training and experience while with the Legislative PEER Committee, Office of the State Auditor and the Ethics Commission. Each of these institutions are prolific in developing staff on legal, financial, compliance, efficiency and effective evaluations of public entities. While with the Department of Health I am responsible for several areas of operation including financial/appropriation, operational, personnel, grants management, information technology, local health departments, etc. While working for the Institutions of Higher Learning I was able to develop and implement a system-wide board internal audit policy, audit charter, development of a system-wide risk assessment model and audit plan along with implementation of a system fraud, waste and abuse hotline.
