

POLICY ON NON-ACADEMIC DISCIPLINARY ACTION

All students enrolled in the School of Graduate Studies at the University of Mississippi Medical Center are expected to conduct themselves in an honest and ethical manner appropriate to a professional student whether on or off campus. Examples of unprofessional conduct include, but are not limited to these examples: dishonesty, cheating, falsifying documents, accessing or divulging protected patient information, violating the UMC Information Policy and knowingly violating any other UMC policy. Any student who does not meet the standards of professional conduct may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from school. Students have the right to appeal any disciplinary action.
