University Sports Medicine Hosts Coaches Conference

JACKSON, Miss. – University Sports Medicine, a part of University of Mississippi Health Care, will host the 2010 Coaches Conference from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. on Saturday, June 12 in the University of Mississippi Medical Center Conference Center at the Jackson Medical Mall.

The program is designed to educate coaches and select medical professionals on current topics in sports medicine and health care. Topics include hand and wrist injuries, return to play casting and bracing, concussion management, injury prevention techniques and training programs. University Sports Medicine physicians and athletic trainers, as well invited guest speakers, will lead these informational sessions.

Continuing education credit can be obtained. For more information or a registration form, contact Jeff Martinez at (601) 984-6519.

The University of Mississippi Medical Center, located in Jackson, is the state's only academic medical center. University of Mississippi Health Care represents the clinical programs of the Medical Center and includes University Hospitals and Health System and University Physicians, the faculty group practice. UMMC encompasses five health science schools, including medicine, nursing, health related professions, dentistry and graduate studies, as well as the site where University of Mississippi pharmacy students do their clinical training. The Medical Center's threefold mission is to educate tomorrow's health-care professionals, conduct innovative research to improve human health, and to provide the highest quality care available to the state's citizens. A major goal of the Medical Center is the improvement of the health of Mississippians and the elimination of health disparities.
